Supposing they had no labels!

An experienced artist could still tell they were Rowney colours. The feel, the look and the texture – these are what an artist recognises. Rowneys have been making artists' materials for 175 years – they export to over 50 countries and the 1965 pocket catalogue contains more than 4,000 different items. Would you like a copy?

THE FOURTH
LORD MAYOR'S ART AWARD

January 1967

The Corporation of the City of London will arrange the fourth Lord Mayor's Art Award Exhibition in the Guildhall Art Gallery during January 1967.

The Corporation's policy of encouraging painters to record the tradition, the established beauty and the new development of the City of London will be continued in this way and the sum of £500 is to be made available for awards. The Corporation will consider the purchase of suitable works for their permanent collection.

All paintings submitted to the Exhibition must depict some aspect of life or landscape, including the Thames and Tower Bridge, London Bridge, Southwark Bridge and Blackfriars Bridge, within the square mile of the City (bounded approximately by the Temple in the West, Aldgate in the East, Moorgate in the North and the river in the South). The main emphasis should be on buildings and projects, people at work, street or river scenes, ceremonial occasions.

All enquiries and applications for schedules should be addressed to:
