The Royal Society of British Artists is associated with a number of other Art Societies who form together the Federation of British Artists. They have differing functions and priorities, but they all have one thing in common: it is to show works of art, not to promote names. You can see good work round the galleries of London by artists you have heard of, and of whom you know, up to a point, what to expect.

You must, as often as not, come to the Societies to find equally good works by artists you have perhaps not heard of, and which may provide you with quite the unexpected.

This is what the Royal Society of British Artists hopes to present to you each year. It has its membership, on which the substance of the exhibition must depend: beyond this, the selectors choose work solely on quality, without regard to and often without the knowledge of the signatures. We are happy if they sell, but nothing is picked for its potential sales value. If this is what makes the activities of Art Societies (and we must think of our own particularly at this time) unfashionable in our economic climate, it is what justifies their abiding existence.

Colin Hayes, RA
President, Royal Society of British Artists

Fine Art Commissions Service

Are you thinking of commissioning a picture but cannot find the right artist?

The Federation of British Artists is a registered arts charity based at the Mall Galleries in central London. We are the umbrella organisation for nine professional art societies and today represent more than 600 established artist members.

Over the last 24 years the Federation of British Artists has provided a successful Fine Art Advisory Service for individuals, businesses and organisations wishing to commission and purchase works of art by contemporary artists.

For more information, or an appointment to view artists' work, please telephone our Commissions Consultant, Katy Letman, on 0171 930 6844.

- I would like to know more about commissioning/purchasing a picture.
 - Please send me further information about the FBA Fine Art Commissions Service.

The 279th Exhibition of the Royal Society of British Artists

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Exhibition is open from 25th September to 6th October 1996.

Hours of admission: Daily 10am–5pm (including Sundays), but only 10am–3pm on Sunday 6th October.

All information may be obtained from the desk in the foyer.

CONDITIONS RELATING TO THE SALE OF PICTURES, ETC.

Please note that all prices are quoted in pounds.

NOTE RE PRICES: Certain artists are registered for VAT. The 17½% tax is included in the advertised prices of these artists whose registered numbers may be obtained from the attendant at the desk in the foyer.

All works sold are marked with a red spot.

Purchasers are requested, at the time of purchase, to complete a sale note which may be obtained from the attendant at the desk in the foyer.

No work may be removed until after the close of the exhibition.

The Council of the Society does not hold itself responsible for errors in prices and reserves the right to cancel a sale.

After the close of the exhibition, and only after payment of the purchase price, the work will be handed to the purchaser, or his agent authorised in writing, on application at 17 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5BD.

Any purchase effected by or with the artist direct must at once be notified to the Keeper and these rules complied with; otherwise a sale effected by the Society shall take precedence and supercede one made privately.

The copyright of each work in the Gallery is strictly reserved to the artist unless special arrangement to the contrary is made.

Cheques must be made payable to the FEDERATION OF BRITISH ARTISTS.

The Federation of British Artists Join the Friends of the FBA

The Federation of British Artists works to encourage and promote the appreciation and practice of the Fine Arts.

It is a registered charity and umbrella organisation for nine of the country's leading art societies:

Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolours

Royal Society of British Artists

Royal Society of Marine Artists

Royal Institute of Oil Painters

New English Art Club

The Pastel Society

Society of Wildlife Artists

Hesketh Hubbard Art Society

Election to membership of the societies is on merit, although less established artists are encouraged to submit work to the annual exhibitions held at the Mall Galleries.

Artists' prizes are given at most exhibitions – many of them specifically for younger artists.

The FBA Friends Society enjoys a close relationship with the Mall Galleries and each of its member societies.

By becoming a Friend now you will be making a personal contribution towards the work of the FBA in helping new and unknown painters and experienced artists.

Generous Friends benefits include . . .

MALL GALLERIES

A central, prestigious venue for events and exhibitions

Have you considered the Mall Galleries for your next exhibition, or corporate event?

Clients comment not only about our central, prestigious venue, but also about the friendly service we offer:

"A big thank you to everyone at the Mall Galleries. We were delighted with the exhibition and evening reception . . . thanks for all your hard work."

Diamond Information Centre.

"Thank you for the superb way you handled the arrangements for our reception. The success was due to the professional and sympathetic approach you adopted."

The Advertising Standards Authority.

The Mall Galleries is housed on The Mall, John Nash's elegant Regency Terrace, prominently situated on the ceremonial route between Buckingham Palace and Trafalgar Square.

From a drinks party for 50 to a sit-down dinner for 250, a reception at the Mall Galleries is set against a backdrop of contemporary fine art. The Mall Galleries is an ideal venue for entertaining clients, customers and staff.

By holding your next exhibition or corporate event at the Mall Galleries, you will be supporting a long-established arts charity and will help us to fulfill our role in encouraging and promoting living British artists.

For more information on exhibiting or entertaining at the Mall Galleries please telephone John Deston or Liza Miers on 0171 930 6844.
