INTRODUCTION FROM THE PRESIDENT

The 286th annual Exhibition features paintings, sculpture and print making by some of the foremost artists in the country. The exciting work of Richard Sorrell, the 2002 De Laszlo medal winner is one of the main features of the exhibition. In addition to the work of members of the society, the president and Council gave careful consideration to the work submitted by non-members and have included what was considered to be of a high standard irrespective of style or media.

It was with sadness that we have recently lost Colleen Kummerehl and Jim Russell, both extremely talented artists.

The RBA has been active and influential in art education at all levels and is proud to have secured sponsorship for a National Students' Exhibition of work by students from schools which have achieved Specialist Visual Arts Status.

The exhibition particularly showcases the schools closely associated with the RBA.

I dedicate the exhibition to our late members and John Russell who recently died. The students' exhibition would not have been possible without the support of his son Chris Russell.

Finally on behalf of all the exhibitors I thank all our sponsors for their generosity and backing.

Cav. Romeo Di Girolamo, PRBA

"It is a great privilege for the Visual Arts to be invited to take part in the Royal Society of British Artists prestigious Annual Exhibition. This is a wonderful showcase opportunity for Specialist Colleges and is part of an inspirational vision on behalf of the Royal Society of British Artists. In particular the personal leadership and commitment of its President Cavaliere Romeo di Girolamo and his council to reach out to include and influence the younger artistic generation is a marvellous example to other artistic and cultural organisations. The work submitted is vibrant, diverse and in some cases challenging. I hope it provides the public with an interesting addition to the very high quality and exciting Royal Society of British Artists Annual Exhibition 2003."

Chris Russell BA, MEd, CertEd, FRBA, FRSA, FCFMI Principal, Astor College for the Arts

THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF BRITISH ARTISTS

The Royal Society of British Artists was established in 1823 by thirty-two professional artists as an alternative to the Royal Academy.

The dedicated group raised sufficient funds which enabled them to commission John Nash to design and build the society's first gallery in Suffolk Street.

The Society's first exhibition was in 1824 and by 1847 it had been granted a Royal Charter.

Since its formation the RBA has had thirty-five presidents including many distinguished painters such as James McNeill Whistler, Walter Richard Sickert, Peter Greenham and more recently, Colin Hayes.

As well as promoting the visual arts through exhibitions in recent years the society has been active and influential in art education at all levels.

Royal Society of British Artists SCHOOLS WORKSHOP

Portfolio and sketch book building

These popular workshops are designed to aid examination students to understand the importance of preparatory work, as required by the national curriculum.

Member artists present sketchbook and preparatory material, and discuss how they record and design a composition using sketches. Students are encouraged to bring in work for constructive advice and to compare ideas.

The workshops are free of charge. Schools and colleges must book in advance.

THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF BRITISH ARTISTS

The Royal Society of British Artists was established in 1823 by thirty-two professional artists as an alternative to the Royal Academy.

The dedicated group raised sufficient funds which enabled them to commission John Nash to design and build the society's first gallery in Suffolk Street.

The Society's first exhibition was in 1824 and by 1847 it had been granted a Royal Charter.

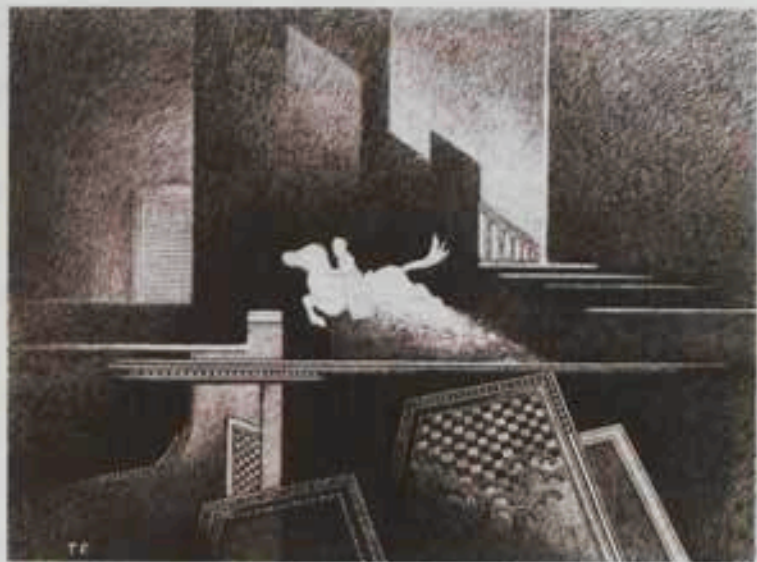

Since its formation the RBA has had thirty-five presidents including many distinguished painters such as James McNeill Whistler, Walter Richard Sickert, Peter Greenham and more recently, Colin Hayes.

As well as promoting the visual arts through exhibitions in recent years the society has been active and influential in art education at all levels and is proud to include alongside its 286th Annual Exhibition a national exhibition of work by students from schools which have achieved specialist Visual Arts Status.
