It is with sadness that this year we have to record the death of Rebecca Cairns RBA RWA who will be greatly missed by the Society.

To contact any artist, please email honsec.rba@gmail.com or see the artist's page on the RBA website at:

President's Foreword

This is my second year as President and I am delighted to celebrate another RBA exhibition at the Mall Galleries, showcasing figurative art at its best.

We have all been challenged by the 2020 pandemic and adverse weather conditions, so it makes it all the more exhilarating and joyful to engage in something as uplifting and inspiring as this exhibition.

Our Patron, Sponsors and Prize-givers have reaffirmed their support for this prestigious event and we thank each and every one of them. This year we have had a record-breaking number of works submitted by non-members and I wish to congratulate those whose work is represented in the show. There were many others we would like to have included, had we had the space to do so – it was such a difficult task for our Selection Committee.

Over the last three years we have made a concerted effort to reach out to young artists and, as a result, this year saw 328 submissions from them and we have included 60 in this show - all selected on merit. This is a testament to our commitment and success in encouraging young people to involve themselves with our Society.

Additionally, we have a further 40 young artists who are this year's RBA RISING STARS – they are the semi-finalists for our Rome Scholarship and their work can be seen online at the Royal Over-Seas League. They are also featured in this catalogue.

It will be apparent from the show that our Members have worked extremely hard to present their best works for you to enjoy, whether viewing them in the gallery or online, and I express my thanks to them all.

'Investing in art for the future is investing in the future of art'

Warmest regards,

Mick Davies PRBA Hon RBSA

President

Illustrious Past Members of the RBA

Since its foundation in 1823, the Society of British Artists (it became Royal in 1887) has been a magnet for some of Britain's most celebrated artists. A peruse through the Society's exhibition catalogues reads like a 'Who's Who' of British virtuosity. Listed is a small selection of artists who were members of the Society. More past members can be seen on our website: royalsocietyofbritishartists.org.uk/past-members

Sir Edward Coley Burne-Jones, ARA
(1833 - 1898)

RBA Member: October 1890,
Honorary RBA Member: 1893.

Sir Edward Coley Burne-Jones, ARA was a British artist and designer associated with the phase of the Pre-Raphaelite movement, who worked with William Morris on decorative arts as a founding partner in Morris, Marshall, Faulkner & Co.

He exhibited at the RBA between 1890 and 1898.

Sir Winston Churchill, KG, OM, CH, TD, DL, FRS, RA
(1874 - 1965)

Honorary RBA Member: 1948

Churchill became an accomplished amateur artist after his resignation from the Admiralty in 1915. Using the pseudonym "Charles Monn", he continued this hobby throughout his life and completed hundreds of paintings, many of which are on show in the studio at Chartwell as well as in private collections.

He became an Honorary Member in 1948.

William Holman Hunt OM
(1827 - 1910)

Honorary RBA Member: 1898

Hunt was an English painter and one of the founders of the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood. His paintings were notable for their great attention to detail, vivid colour, and elaborate symbolism.

He became an Honorary Member in 1948, and exhibited May Morning: On Magdalen Tower, Oxford in 1898 and Piazza Della Costituzione, Athens, By Night in 1902.

Christopher Richard Wynne Nevinson, ARA
(1889 - 1946)

RBA Member 1931

He exhibited 90 works between 1932 and 1946, with prices ranging from £4-4-0 to £105. In 2017 his oil painting A Dawn sold at Sotheby's for £1,869,000.

Dorothea Sharp
(1874 - 1955)

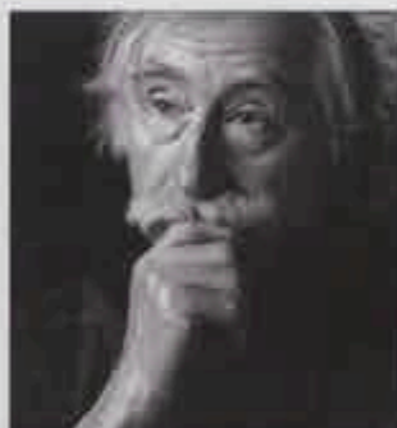

RBA Member 1907

Sharp was born in Dartford, and attended the Richmond Art School.

She went on to Paris, where she first encountered the work of the Impressionists that were to have a profound and lasting effect on her art, resulting in the highly impressionistic and spontaneous style that she was to adopt for the rest of her life.

Sir John Kyffin Williams, KBE, RA
(1918 - 2006)

Williams was a Welsh landscape painter who is widely regarded as the defining artist of Wales during the 20th century. He was born in Llangefnl, Anglesey and studied at London's Slade School of Fine Art.

In 1968 he won a scholarship (Winston Churchill Fellowship) to study and paint in Y Wladfa, the Welsh settlement in Patagonia, South America.

Sir John Kyffin Williams KBE RA
Blaen Ffronci No. 1

Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema, RA, OM
(1838 - 1924)

Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema, OM, RA was a Dutch painter of special British denizenship. Born in Dronryp, the Netherlands, and trained at the Royal Academy of Antwerp, Belgium, he settled in England in 1870 and spent the rest of his life there.

A classical-subject painter, he became famous for his depictions of the luxury and decadence of the Roman Empire.

RBA Star Students 2021

The RBA are delighted to work once again with The Arts Society (formerly NADFAS) in celebrating the work of young artists from schools and colleges nationwide. Our Education Committee had the difficult task of selecting 20 works from many which had been submitted with the aid of The Art Society's colleagues, who visited 'A' Level shows nationwide to put forward the names of student artists whose work was of an exceptional standard to include as part of our exhibition at Mall Galleries.

Sadly due to Covid restrictions the RBA Star Students have been unable to show their work in this exhibition.

of Art, London, and in 2018 was elected Honorary Fellow of Worcester College, Oxford University, for 'distinction in the world of art'. She is only the third wood engraver ever elected to membership of the RA.

She exhibits her wood engravings and printed collages widely, has won over 40 awards (including the Rome Scholarship in Printmaking and awards in Brazil, Britain, Bulgaria, Canada, Finland, Italy, Russia and USA) and has works in museum collections worldwide.

The Ashmolean Museum and Whitworth have significant holdings of her works. Over 40 solo shows include four museum retrospectives in the UK and Moscow.

Commissions include engravings for the British Museum; National Gallery; British Library; V&A; Sotheby's and the Royal Mint. Desmet is author of seven published books on printmaking and drawing and was Editor of Printmaking Today magazine (1998-2013).

She lives and works in London and curated an historic exhibition: "Scene through Wood: A Century of Modern Wood Engraving" shown at the Ashmolean last year and touring UK museums for the next few years.

RBA RISING STARS 2021

Every year the RBA Education Committee selects 40 semi-finalists for the RBA Rome Scholarship. These "RISING STARS" aged 18 - 35 will have their work shown in an exhibition at the Royal Over-Seas League (ROSL) in Mayfair.

Three of these will be selected as finalists and invited to an interview at the Mall Galleries in Central London. They will each be able to show one of their works alongside members at the RBA Annual Exhibition in 2022 and will each receive a financial award. The winner will spend a month at Sala Uno, a prestigious arts centre and gallery in the centre of Rome.

Their work is online in a virtual show at the Royal Over-Seas League and on the RBA website. For sale enquiries, please email: rosart@ros.org.uk

Winner of The Whistler Award 2020: Nick Tidnam PPRBA NEAC

The Whistler Medal is presented annually to an RBA member chosen by his/her peers. The award is seen as a mark of respect and appreciation for a fellow artist, whose artistic work and/or efforts on behalf of the Society have contributed greatly to its betterment and well-being.

Nick Tidnam has works in public and private collections in the UK and world-wide and has received many awards and prizes in prestigious exhibitions. He was elected to the RBA in 2001 and to the New English Art Club in 2014.

In 2020 the Society awarded the Medal to a man who has always worked hard on its behalf and is also a fine painter, therefore easily meeting both requirements.

He was Membership Secretary for many years, Council member, Trustee, a Member of The Education Committee and RBA President. His support for Member artists and his lifelong commitment to helping and guiding young artists has been outstanding.

We all know him as a fair minded, honest gentleman. A modest man by nature, thankfully his paintings speak for themselves and represent a culmination of hard work and thought. He is always striving to take his work forward and is constantly challenging himself artistically.

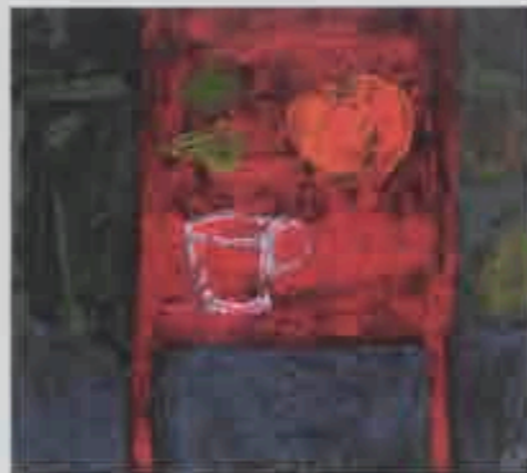

Times may change and there may be new fads and directions, but whatever the trends, quality always stands out and Nick Tidnam has it in abundance.

During his time as a Member, his service to the RBA and his actions are there for all to see - and actions speak louder than words!

Nick Tidnam is a very special man, a very special artist and a worthy recipient of this award.
